

YOU are the biggest influence in your child's life...

Communicate regularly with your child's teachers. You can learn so much, such as...

- How your child is doing on classwork
- How your child interacts with others
- If there are any disciplinary problems and why
- What activities are available for your child

Want your child to make successful decisions?

GET INVOLVED NOW!
HERE IS HOW!

National Standards for Family-School Partnerships

While home improvement is important, YOUR involvement with the school is critical. You ask yourself, "how can I be more involved with my child's school?"

Here is how:

- Attend open houses/conference days
- Read school newsletters
- Visit the school website
- www.freedomareaschools.org
- Get to know your child's teachers
- Support your child in school activities
- Volunteer for school functions and extra-curricular activities

Parents influence everything from reading level to test scores. The benefits of parental involvement are:

- Higher Grades
- Better Behavior
- Positive Attitudes
- Better Attendance
- More Homework Completed
- Build Communication Skills

Set high expectations for your child's performance. Your child will be more likely to meet them. Set goals together and always believe in his/her abilities!

Parents have rights in their child's education.

- Gifted IEP's support your child's enrichment learning.
- If your child is struggling academically, he/she may qualify for educational services to assist with his/her areas of need. Contact your child's Building Principal for more information.

Do you know your child can participate in:

- Bender Leadership & School to Work
- Alternate Learning Center
- OVR Services
- Free/Reduced Breakfast and Lunch
- Beaver County Job Training & Job Corp
- CTC Certificates
- Career Fair, Job Shadowing
- Career Exploring

Visit our website! There is so much information that will benefit you and your child. We would like for you to send in your questions so we can best service you and your child!!
